Trainer:

Joe Nullet, a graduate of Harvard University, is the Executive Director of the Supervised Visitation Network, an international membership organization of professionals who provide supervised visitation and access services to families. Joe was also formerly the Executive Director of the Family Nurturing Center of Florida, an organization committed to creating a community of nurturing care for our children.

As recognized Trainer/Consultant for the Nurturing Parenting programs, Joe's area of strength is in the administration, support, and successful implementation of the Nurturing Parenting programs. Since 2001, Joe has successfully obtained financial support from the Jaguars Foundation, the Community Foundation of Jacksonville, the Reinhold Foundation, the Rice Family Foundation, UPS, Publix, the Martin Foundation, and others for the implementation of Nurturing Parenting programs.

As a father of three beautiful boys, Joe is passionate about nurturing his family and the world in which they live. Joe is available to train your agency staff to facilitate the Nurturing Parenting programs or as a consultant to develop innovative strategies to foster community collaboration, solicit financial support, and manage the effective implementation of Nurturing Parenting programs within your organization and/or community.

The Nurturing Parenting Programs ®

The Nurturing Parenting Programs are family-based programs with a proven track record of preventing the recurrence of child abuse and neglect.

Four levels of Nurturing Programs address the specific needs of different populations:

PRIMARY

Prevention-Education Programs are designed to empower individuals and families with new knowledge, beliefs, strategies and skills to make good and healthy lifestyle choices.

SECONDARY

Prevention- Intervention Programs are designed for at-risk youth, teen parents, and families experiencing mild to moderate levels of individual and family dysfunction.

TERTIARY

Prevention- Treatment Programs are designed for families referred for parenting education by Social Services/Mental Health for child abuse and neglect and/or family dysfunction.

COMPREHENSIVE Programs are designed for agencies to offer long term, more comprehensive parenting education.

Adult-Adolescent Parenting Inventory (AAPI-2)

The AAPI-2 has proven invaluable in assessing the parenting attitudes and child-rearing beliefs of parents and adolescents. Founded on five parenting constructs known to lead to abusive parenting, The AAPI provide scores that profile parents at risk for abusing and neglecting children. Forms available in English and Spanish. Now available on a CD ROM. For more information, visit www.aapionline.com.

Philosophy of the Nurturing Program

The philosophy of the Nurturing Program emphasizes the importance of raising children in a warm, trusting and caring environment. It is founded on the belief that children who are cared for develop the capacity to trust, care and respect themselves, others, living creatures and their environment. This philosophy is founded on 7 principles:

1. Feelings of attachment. Attachment is a bond between a parent and their child that conveys deep unconditional love. Children who feel loved unconditionally, children exhibit positive communication, trust and respect naturally.
2. Empathy. Empathy is the ability of parents to put themselves in the place of their children in an attempt to feel, think and understand what their child is feeling, thinking and understanding, and respond to the child in a loving and respectful way.
3. Nurturing Oneself. Taking time to get one's own needs met, as an adult, forms the foundation of understanding and helping a child get their needs met.
4. Gentle Touch. Research has shown that children who experience warm and gentle touch in the form of hugs, pats, and massages develop and maintain healthy relationships throughout their life, as well as a healthy and positive sense of self.
5. Discipline. Setting limits through family rules, teaching right from wrong through family morals, and teaching respect and worth through family values are all part of a nurturing family. Discipline develops best by children modeling their parent's examples.
6. Expressing Feelings. Helping children learn appropriate ways to manage and express their feelings is a fundamental characteristic of a nurturing family.
7. Expectations and Self Worth. Knowing what to expect of children as they develop plays a significant role in the child's self-worth. Children learn that they are competent people, capable of pleasing others important in their lives when the adults in their life have appropriate expectations.
